Demographic data on people applying will exist in the Office, Secretary of Defense.

Automated case summary information for all former military members, regardless of Service, maintained by Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA), US Army Management Systems Support Agency, The Pentagon, Washington, DC 20310.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Former members of the Army who seek discharge upgrade action in accordance with Department of Defense special discharge review program and case summary sheet data on former military members of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force, and the Coast Guard.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Contains information initially provided by individual when seeking discharge upgrade consideration; includes but is not limited to: name, social security number (SSN), mailing address, telephone number, former service number(s), and dates of military service. File subsequently contains information provided by requester in written form; information includes discharge date (between 4 Aug 64 and 28 Mar 73 except where otherwise noted), type discharge, desertion data (if applicable), branch of service, SSN, service number(s), address, hearing method, and dates of confirmation letter.

Case data sheet consolidates preceding information as well as information provided from official military records pertaining to the requester and includes, but is not limited to, the following: index reference and case number associated with individual request, date official military personnel file received from NPRC, date of birth, home of record, officer or inductee/enlistee, sex, race, date entered/discharged from service, reason and authority for discharge, documents submitted by individuals meriting special consideration, dates of accomplishment of steps related to processing of request; discharge review date; conclusion (upgrade to honorable, general, or appeal denied); vote of discharge review board and reasons (special considerations, mitigating factors, compelling reasons, deserving post service conduct); date of applicant notification of discharge review determination, and application for rehearing if applicable.

Information which may be obtained from military service records pertaining to the requester includes whether individual completed tour in Southeast Asia or Western Pacific, was wounded in combat, decorated for valor or merit, honorably discharged from previous tour, satisfactorily served 24 months prior to discharge or completed alternative service, or was excused in accordance with Presidential Proclamation 4313. Mitigating data pertaining to request include general aptitude, length of service at time of discharge, education level, socio-economic background, factors related to personal distress, waiver(s) granted for service entry, offense(s) motivated by conscience, drug/alcohol related discharge, and good citizenship. Disqualifying data include whether discharged for act(s) of violence/dishonor, offense(s) subject to civilian criminal prosecution, and desertion in or from combat theater.

Automated record contains summary data from case data summary sheet described above, accumulated by Army for all military services, and includes type record, SSN or service number(s), discharge date (between 4 Aug 64 and 28 Mar 73), name, address, telephone number, hearing method, date of inquiry, date of confirmation letter.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 5 U.S.C., Section 301; Title 10 U.S.C., Sections 3012, 1553, and 1554.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

To support Army Discharge Review Board actions and notify appropriate government agencies (e.g., Veterans Administration) of matters pursuant to such action.

To render recurring reports on number of cases processed by each military service, and matters associated therewith.

To respond to inquiries from individuals to whom records pertain, their counsel, members of Congress, and other governmental agencies concerning the status and disposition of cases.

To obtain views and recommendations, as required, from other governmental activities within their area of responsibility, including The Attorney General and other law enforcement agencies in those cases alleging acts of force or violence and criminal conduct deemed to be so serious as to warrant continued investigation or possible prosecution.

STORAGE:

Paper records in files, card indexes, computer magnetic tapes/disks, computer punch cards, and computer printouts.

RETRIEVABILITY:

By name, SSN or service number, case number or other individually unique identifier assigned the record. Case Summary may be grouped by military service Discharge Review Board and thereunder filed alphabetically by name, case number, SSN or service number, or by other appropriate identifier.

SAFEGUARDS:

Manual records are stored in buildings which employ security guards; records are accessible only to authorized personnel.

Automated records are under the control of a cardkey access system which requires positive identification and authorization, and are located in a designated controlled area to which access is limited to selected personnel only.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Final determination and associated supporting documentation incorporated into the Official Military Personnel Folder of the Army member and returned to NPRC, GSA upon completion of action by the Discharge Review Board. Copy of case data summary sheet for each former military service member (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force) and copy of a comprehensive final report by each military service upon completion of the program will be retained by the Army Council of Review Boards for a period not yet determined.

Automated record information retained for 5 years or until such time as necessary to complete all special Discharge Review Board program actions and attendant administrative matters associated with accounting, reporting, and historical file maintenance in support of DOD requirements. Subsequently destroyed.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Primary System: Systems Support Directorate, United States Army Reserve Components Personnel and Administration Center (RCPAC) (Field Operating Agency of The Adjutant General's Office, Department of the Army (DA)), 9700 Page Boulevard, St Louis, MO 63132.

Decentralized Segments: Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel (DCSPER) and DA Staff Agencies and commands.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Any person who is currently employed as a United States Army Reserve (USAR) Technician.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

File contains personnel identification data to include name and social security number (SSN) and work status data concerning job category, grade, assigned work station and location. If personnel are members of the USAR, data on reserve assignment and reserve grade are also carried.

Title 10 U.S.C., Section 275.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

RCPAC: Receive raw input data from USAR Commands, maintain the centralized data processing system and produces and distributes reports to the users. Is the computer processing agency; does not utilize or dispense data to other than officially designated agencies.

USAR Commands: To obtain current management data to administer to technicians assigned within their command.

DCSPER: To monitor and provide policy guidance and budget planning for the program.

Other DA Staff agencies and commands: To provide data for inclusion in training and mobilization plans.

STORAGE:

Stored as computer tape and paper printout.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Sequenced numerically by SSN.

SAFEGUARDS:

Security guards limit access to the RCPAC. Magnetic tape files are maintained in a library by reel numbers; access to a specific file must be determined by responsible scheduling personnel. In addition, basic file characteristics must be programmed into access programs before individual data records can be referenced.

Access to hard copy listings is limited to employed personnel with a job related need-to-know requirement at the DCSPER, USAR Commands, and other DA Staff agencies and commands.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

The automatic data processing system at the RCPAC requires records to be maintained on an evolutionary schedule; a record is created upon hiring and is eliminated when employment is terminated. Tape files are retained for 60 days; tape files are retained in a tape library through 3 processing cycles, a creation cycle, for use as the current file in the next creation cycle and then as the emergency back-up file.

Printed reports/listings are maintained at the DCSPER, USAR Commands, and other DA Staff agencies and commands until superseded by the next edition.

Local and state government and agencies for compliance with local laws and regulations governing control of communicable diseases, preventive medicine and safety, child abuse, and other public health and welfare programs.

Records of identity, diagnosis, prognosis, or treatment of any client/patient, irrespective of whether or when he/she ceases to be a client/patient, maintained in connection with the performance of any alcohol or drug abuse prevention and treatment function conducted, regulated, or directly or indirectly assisted by any department or agency of the United States, shall, except as provided therein, be confidential and be disclosed only for the purposes and under the circumstances expressly authorized in Title 21 U.S.C., Section 1175 and Title 42 U.S.C., Section 4582. These statutes take precedence over the Privacy Act of 1974 in regard to accessibility of such records except to the individual to whom the record pertains. Blanket 'routine uses' identified in 44 FR 73728 do not apply to these records.

STORAGE:

Paper records in file folders; visible card files; microfiche; cassettes; punched cards; computer printouts and magnetic tapes and disks; and x-ray film preservers.

RETRIEVABILITY:

By last name or social security number (SSN) of patient or sponsor.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are maintained in buildings which employ security guards and are accessed only by authorized personnel having an official need-to-know. Automated segments are protectd by controlled system passwords governing access to data.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Medical records of a permanent nature (as defined in Record-Category) are retained as follows:

Military Health/Dental and Procurement/Separation X-ray Records: Permanent; Clinical (inpatient), Outpatient, Dental, and Consultation Record Files - Military members: Destroyed after 50 years (Records pertaining to United States Military Academy (USMA) cadets are withdrawn and retired to the Surgeon, USMA, West Point, NY 10996.); Civilians and Foreign Nationals: Destroyed after 25 years; American Red Cross personnel: Withdrawn and forwaded to the American National Red Cross.

All medical records (except the Military Health/Dental Records which are active while individual is on active duty then retired with individual's Military Personnel Records Jacket and the Procurement/Separation X-ray Records which are forwarded to the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) on an accumulation basis) are retained in an active file while treatment is provided and subsequently held for a period of one to five years following treatment before being retired to the NPRC.

Subsidiary medical records, of a temporary nature (as defined in Record-Category), are normally not retained long beyond termination of treatment; however, supporting documents determined to have significant documentation value to patient care and treatment are incorporated into the appropriate permanent record file.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

The Surgeon General, Headquarters, Department of the Army, The Pentagon, Washington, DC 20310.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Information may be obtained from the medical facility where treatment was provided (for military and civilian records); Medical Officer, American National Red Cross, 18th and D Streets, NW, Washington, DC 20006 (for American National Red Cross employees).

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Written requests should contain requester's full name, SSN, and current address/telephone number. Requests for information concerning inpatient treatment, furnish the name of the hospital and year of treatment.

Personal visits may be made to the medical facility where treatment was provided or to the American National Red Cross (whichever is appropriate). Individuals must provide personal identification such as a valid driver's license or military/civilian identification card.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

The Army's rules for access to records and for contesting contents and appealing initial determinations are contained in Army Regulation 340-21 (32 CFR Part 505).

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Personal interviews and history statements from the individuals; abstracts or copies of pertinent medical records; examination records of intelligence, personality, achievement, and aptitude; reports from attending and previous physicians and other medical personnel regarding the results of physical, dental, and mental examinations, treatment, evaluation, consultation, laboratory, x-ray and special studies and research conducted to provide health care and medical treatment, and similar or related documents.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Any individual who is diagnosed as an alcohol drug abuser by a physician and subsequently enrolled in the ADAPCP.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

File contains client intake and follow-up records, initial interview forms, psychosocial histories, counselor observations and impressions of client's behavior and rehabilitation progress, copies of medical consultation and laboratory procedures performed, results of biochemical urinalysis for drug abuse, and similar or related documents.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title V, Public Law 92-129; Section 413, Public Law 92-255.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Blanket 'routine uses' identified in 44 FR 73728 do not apply to this system of records.

Records of identity, diagnosis, prognosis, or treatment of any client/patient, irrespective of whether or when he/she ceases to be a client/patient, maintained in connection with the performance of any alcohol or drug abuse prevention and treatment function conducted, regulated, or directly or indirectly assisted by any department or agency of the United States, shall, except as provided therein be confidential and be disclosed only for the purposes and under the circumstances expressely authorized in Title 21 U.S.C., Section 1175, as amended by 88 Stat. 137, and Title 42 U.S.C., Section 4582, as amended by 88 Stat. 131. These statutes take precedence over the Privacy Act of 1974, in regard to accessibility of such records except to the individual to whom the record pertains.

Within the Armed Forces or within those components of the Veterans Administration furnishing health care to veterans or between such components and the Armed Forces.

To medical personnel outside the Armed Forces to the extent necessary to meet a bona fide medical emergency.

To Government personnel for the purpose of obtaining benefits to which the patient is entitled.

To qualified personnel for the purpose of conducting scientific research, management or financial audits, or program evaluation, but such personnel may not identify, directly or indirectly, any individual patient in any report of such research, audit or evaluation, or otherwise disclose identities in any manner.

To a court of competent jurisdiction upon authorization by an appropriate order after showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services. Upon the granting of such order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of any record is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Members of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force, Reserve Officer Training Corps and National Defense Cadet Corps students, Department of Defense civilian employees, and approved foreign military personnel enrolled in a resident/non-resident course at a US Army service school.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Files contain name, grade or rank, social security number (SSN), address, component, branch personnel classifications, military occupational specialty (MOS), credit hours accumulated, examination and lesson grades, student academic status, student curricula, course description.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 10 U.S.C., Section 3012(B) and (G).

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Designated administrative and academic personnel at US Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) headquarters and service schools use student records to record lessons and/or exam grades, maintain student academic status, maintain course and subcourse descriptions, produce management summary reports. For non-resident applicants, records are used to produce course completion certificates and reflect credit hours earned.

STORAGE:

Computer magnetic tapes or disks and computer paper printouts.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Individual records may be retrieved by SSN.

SAFEGUARDS:

Random number sign on authentication for each inquiry made to the system is required. SIGNON decks to enable such access are updated weekly, safeguarded under Army Regulation (AR) 380-5 due to their Confidential classification and are unique to one TREDS terminal only. Access is granted only designated personnel at Headquarters TRADOC and Army Service Schools responsible for the administration and processing of resident students.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Machine records are retained during student's entire enrollment, which can vary from a few weeks to a year, depending on the course length. After a course has been completed, the student's records are transferred to the Academic Records System History File where student's records are maintained indefinitely. Non-resident students are assigned a 6 month enrollment period or, if in multiple subcourses, an enrollment period of one year. A hard copy transcript reflecting the student's personal and academic data is produced. The hard copy is retained by the service school for 4 years, then it is transferred to a records holding area on the installation housing the service school and retained for 2 years. It is then transferred to the National Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, MO, where it is retained for 34 years, then destroyed.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Director of Automation (ATZLSW-DOA), United States Army Command and General Staff College (USACGSC), Ft Leavenworth, KS 66027.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Any officer, United States or Allied, enrolled in the USACGSC resident program.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

System contains personal data on resident students (i.e., name, rank, social security number (SSN); administrative data (i.e., counselor, class section); and academic data (i.e., courses, course grades).

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 10 U.S.C., Section 3012.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Records are used to schedule resident students for courses in the USACGSC curriculum; to process grades and other academic related information; to record and translate tests, subcourse and course grades; and, at year end, to prepare school transcripts. Records are used also to prepare rosters and labels for use by the USACGSC departments and other Ft Leavenworth activities. Records serve to track resident student progress throughout the academic year by preparation of various reports and by interactive terminal query.

The automated grading examination system (GRADEX) constitutes a subsystem of this file in that it provides the capability to grade and perform item analysis on various tests given to resident students on MARK SENSE forms.

The student information system constitutes a second subsystem of the file providing the ability to identify students who possess certain skills. This assists in the assignment of students to projects and as assistant instructors. Information collected is printed on reports and is also retrievable by interactive terminal query.

The models and simulation system and the geography of Asia system constitutes a third subsystem of the file providing the capability to administer tests interactively using computer terminals.

The automated student housing assignment system constitutes a fourth subsystem of the file providing the ability to assign students to quarters prior to their arrival.

The user name password system constitutes a fifth subsystem of the file providing the ability to assign computer passwords to students for their use throughout the academic year.

SYSTEM NAME:

1304.08 Immunity Booster Files

SYSTEM LOCATION:

United States (US) Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Diseases (USAMRIID), Ft Detrick, Frederick, MD 21701.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Military and civilian employees of Ft Detrick engaged in research who have been immunized with a biological product or who fall under the Occupational Health and Safety Act or Radio- logic Safety Program.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

File contains name of biological agents, name, social security number (SSN), age, race, date of birth (DOB), occupation, titers, immunization schedule, known allergies, amount of dosage, reaction to immunization, radiologic agents, exposure level, health screening test results, health test schedule.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 5 U.S.C., Section 301; 1943 Executive Order 9397.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Information is used for two primary purposes: To create a large data base of immunological data for research purposes, and to manage the scheduling of all the health screening tests, immunizations, physicals, and other special procedures required by USAMRIID's biosurveillance program, radiologic safety program, and occupational health and safety program.

Scheduling documents are handled by ward clerks and the immuni- zation nurse. Access to immunological data is given to the immunization nurse, the ward physician, and other interested professional investigators.

STORAGE:

Files are maintained on random access disk files, card files and backed up on magnetic tape. Computer paper printouts are also required by the system users.

RETRIEVABILITY:

For research purposes, the data are usually retrieved and analyzed with respect to relative times, vaccine lots, titers, demographic values, etc. The data are seldom retrieved by name of individual or SSN.

The schedule data are retrieved by name, by test to be taken, and by month of scheduled examinations.

SAFEGUARDS:

Files are maintained in a controlled area in the computer center at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research.

Files at USAMRIID are maintained in a building which is locked at night with periodic patrols by security personnel. Access during duty hours is by authorized personnel only.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Records are permanent.

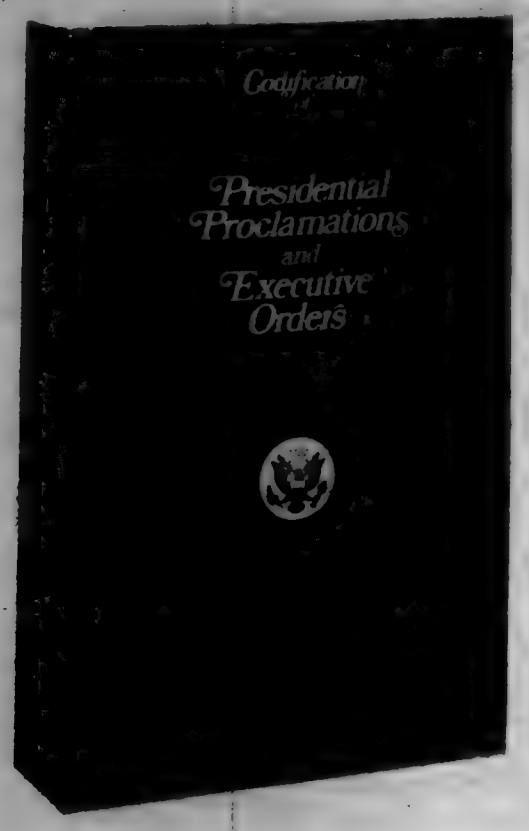
UPDATED EDITION NOW AVAILABLE



For those of you who must keep informed about Presidential proclamations and Executive orders, there is a convenient reference source that will make researching these documents much easier.

Arranged by subject matter, this edition of the Codification contains proclamations and Executive orders that were issued or amended during the period January 20, 1961, through January 20, 1981, and which have a continuing effect on the public. For those documents that have been affected by other proclamations or Executive orders, the codified text presents the amended version. Therefore, a reader can use the Codification to determine the latest text of a document without having to "reconstruct" it through extensive research.

Special features include a comprehensive index and a table listing each proclamation and Executive order issued during the 1961–1981 period, along with any amendments, an indication of its current status, and, where applicable, its location in this volume.

SYSTEM NAME:

1504.08a Real Estate Outgrants

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Office of the Chief of Engineers (OCE), United States Army Corps of Engineers Division and District Offices with real estate responsibility.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Grantees holding outgrants (leases, licenses, easements, permits, and consents) for use of Government real property, or permission (under consents) for use of property over which the Government holds easement interests.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Outgrant instruments and listings by number and name to include location, purpose, term and rental for each outgrant and an indication when grantees are not in compliance with term of their outgrants.

Outgrants at civil and military installations are issued under the following authorities:

Title 10 U.S.C., Sections 2667, 2668, 2669, 2672, 3012, 4777, 8012 and 9777.

Title 16, U.S.C., Sections 460d and 661 et seq.

Title 30 U.S.C., Section 185.

Title 33 U.S.C., Sections 558b and 558b-1.

Title 40 U.S.C., Sections 319 and 471 et seq.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

The purpose of this system is to promote processing of outgrants and to facilitate the administration of the outgrant program.

The machine listing of outgrants (Engineer Form 3560) is used by OCE personnel and District, Division, and Headquarters OCE levels in recording inspections of outgrants and determination of grantees' compliance with terms and conditions of the grant. Though presently used only for civil works projects, it may be used for inspection of military installations.

STORAGE:

Punch cards in ADP Centers; paper records and computer paper printouts in file folders at District/Division/OCE Offices.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Numerically by outgrant number. Numbers may be obtained from an alphabetical listing by name.

SAFEGUARDS:

Automated data are protected by physical security devices which include guards to the buildings, and limited access only to authorized personnel. Access to or update of information in the system is protected through a system of passwords, thereby preserving integrity of data handled. Paper records are maintained in areas accessible only to authorized personnel in buildings which either employ security guards or are locked when not in use.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Outgrants at OCE level are destroyed on termination; remaining files are permanent. Division records are destroyed 4 years after termination of basic instrument. In District Offices and ADP Centers, records are destroyed 3 years after termination of basic instrument.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Chief, Programs Division, Directorate of Real Estate, Office of the Chief of Engineers, Department of the Army, Washington, DC 20314.

DEFENSE MAPPING AGENCY

HOW SYSTEMS OF RECORDS ARE ARRANGED. The Defense Mapping Agency records are grouped by subject series. Each series has records about a specific activity or function to which a subject title and number is given. Systems or records are grouped in the same way. For example, a system of records on personnel security clearances may be found in Personnel Security Files - B0504-01 and one about equal employment opportunities may be found in Equal Employment Opportunity Reporting Files - B0605-01. These numbers are part of the system identifica- tion (ID) which precede the notices in the Federal Register. They look like this: B0504-01 HQ,HT,A; B0605-01 HQ,HT,A,S,I. The letter B means Defense Mapping Agency. The first four digits (0504 and 0601) show that the records pertain to Personnel Security and Equal Employ- ment Opportunity respectively; and the last two are a further breakdown of the series. The letters that follow these numbers are internal management accounting devices only. Other systems of records which differ from these examples but have similar documents may also be found in the same series.

HOW TO USE THE INDEX GUIDE. The systems of records maintained by the Defense Mapping Agency are contained within the subject series that are listed below. This list identifies each series in the order in which it appears in this issuance. Use the list to identify subject areas of interest. Having done so, use the series number (for example 0504 for Personnel Security) to locate the systems of records grouping in which you are interested.

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

ROUTINE USE WITHIN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

Records are used by DMA security personnel to identify and verify personnel granted security clearances or authorized access to SCI. Purpose of verification and identification is to control access to secure areas for use of classified information; for periodic reindoctrination (rebriefing) of employees for SCI access; for periodic security education and training; and for control and reissue of identification badges.

Information is also used to certify personnel SCI access status to other government agencies and to the Defense Intelligence Agency for updating the Security Management Information System.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining and disposing of records in the system.

STORAGE:

Records are stored in computer memory core for retrieval through visual display terminals and line printers.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Files are retrieved by name and at least one other personal identifier, such as a date of birth, place of birth, social security number or military service number. Files may also be retrieved by billet number and/or DMA security badge number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Secured in alarmed vault in guarded building. Vault accessible only to properly cleared, authorized personnel. Transmission of system data between DMA Components is by Secure (encrypted) circuit.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Active records only are maintained. Records of personnel debriefed for SCI access are dumped on a debrief tape which is printed as an alphabetical listing cumulatively each month for one year, then the tape is erased. Old printed listing is destroyed when replaced by new printed listing (weekly).

DEFENSE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in.records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

Investigative Files

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS), a component of the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense (Review and Oversight) (ATSD(R&O)), Cameron Station, Alexandria, VA 22314, has primary control over the system.

Regional field offices, resident agencies, and various DCIS headquarters staff elements originate and have temporary control over portions of the records.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

DoD civilian personnel; members of the Armed Forces of the United States, reserve components, and National Guard units; DoD contractors; individuals residing on, having authorized official access to, or contracting or operating any business or other functions at any DoD installation or facility; and individuals not affiliated with the Department of Defense when their activities have directly threatened the functions, property or personnel of the Department of Defense, or they have threatened any other high ranking government personnel who are provided protective service mandated by the Secretary of Defense, or they have engaged in, or are alleged to engage in criminal acts on DoD installations or directed at the DoD, its personnel or property.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Official reports of Investigation (ROIs) including any attachments, prepared by DCIS or other DoD federal, state, or local official investigative activities;

DCIS Information Summary Reports (ISRs) which record unsolicited information of criminal nature received by DCIS concerning a person or incident which is of direct interest to other DoD Components or federal agencies;

Case control documents which are not included in the ROIs but which serve as the basis of investigation or which guide and facilitate investigative activities, including documents providing the data to open, direct, conduct, transfer and close cases;

DCIS file administration and management documents accounting for disclosure, control, and access to a file; and

Grand Jury information not contained in case files, agent notes, fingerprint cards, duplicate files at the local level and other miscellaneous documents supporting the criminal investigation file to include court documents and on occasion reports of administrative proceedings.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Pursuant to the authority contained in the National Security Act of 1947, 10 U.S.C. 133d, the Secretary of Defense has issued DoD Directive 5105.50, April 28, 1982, creating the Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS) as a separate agency of the Department of Defense under his direction. This directive charges the Director, DCIS, with the responsibility of maintaining all necessary and appropriate records.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Criminal investigative information is collected at the request of appropriate DoD officials or agencies to identify offenders, to provide facts and evidence upon which to base prosecution, to effect corrective administrative action and to recover money and property which has been wrongfully appropriated. Information contained in ISRs is disseminated to interested DoD Components and other federal agencies. Criminal information is collected during reciprocal investigations conducted for other DoD and federal investigative elements (or in limited instances, for local or state law enforcement agencies) for maintainance and use by the requesting activity.

Users of DCIS criminal investigative information include:

DCIS personnel in the course of their official duties, elements of the military departments designated by the departments and representatives of the Secretary of Defense the the Joint Chiefs of Staff; accredited federal criminal and civil law enforcement agencies; other accredited federal agencies conducting investigations to evaluate suitability for employment or access to classified information; congressional committees; and the Government Accounting Office.

DCIS investigative records are used: in criminal law enforcement investigations including statutory violations; counterintelligence, as well as counterespionage and counterterrorist activities and other security matters; to assist the appropriate agency charged with the responsibility for investigating or prosecuting violations of laws, rules, regulations or orders; to provide information in judicial or adjudicative proceedings including litigation or in accordance with a court order; to make statistical evaluations of DCIS investigative activities; to respond to Freedom of Information Act access requests; to determine loyalty, suitability, eligibility, and general trustworthiness of individuals for access to classified information and government facilities, for entry into, retention in and for personnel actions in the Armed Forces and for federal agencies in connection with hiring, retention, issuance of security clearance, or of other benefit by the requesting agency; to provide information pertinent to the protection of persons under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 3056; to provide information in response to Inspector General, Equal Employment, or other complaint investigations and congressional inquiries; to obtain employment records, if necessary, from business enterprises; and to obtain information relevant to the on-going investigations.

STORAGE:

Records are stored in file folders, on microfilm, and supplementary index cards.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Investigations are centrally retrievable through the Defense Investigative Service (DIS) Case Control System (DCCS), V5-04, or the Defense Central Index of Investigations (DCII), V5-02, record systems managed by DIS.

SAFEGUARDS:

All DCIS records are maintained and stored at Cameron Station, Alexandria, VA. They are maintained and stored in locked safes and are accessible only to authorized personnel who have a need to know in conjunction with their official duties. Recipients of investigative information are responsible for safeguarding the information while temporarily in their custody in accordance with guidelines provided by DCIS.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Retention of closed DCIS criminal investigative files is authorized for 25 years, except they may be offered to the National Archives after 15 years. Fraud Prevention surveys are maintained for 10 years. Generally, ISRs are retained only 60 days. Partial duplicate records are retained for one year. All files are destroyed as if they contain classified information.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Associate Director of Investigative Operations, DCIS, P.O. Box 9290, Alexandria, VA 22304.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Requests should be addressed to the system manager. The full name, date, and place of birth and social security number of the subject individual, and any pertinent data concerning the topic of the criminal investigation are necessary for retrieval of information. The requester's signature should be notarized. More information may be required.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Access by mail may be obtained through the system Manager. Visitors may obtain access during the hours from 9 am to 3 pm at Building 8, Room D490, Cameron Station, Alexandria, VA. Visitors should be prepared to identify themselves with some identification media containing a recent photograph.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

DCIS rules for contesting and appealing initial determinations may be obtained from the System Manager.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Subjects and suspects of DCIS investigations.

Interview of witnesses, victims, and confidential sources.

All types of records and information maintained by all levels of government, private industry, and non-profit organizations.

Any other type of record deemed necessary to complete the DCIS criminal investigation.

SYSTEMS EXEMPTED FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT:

The parts of system of records which falls within the scope of 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), are exempt from certain provisions of sections (c)(3), (c)(4), (d), (e)(1), (e)(2), (e)(3), (e)(4)(G), (e)(4) (H), (e)(4)(I), (e)(5), (e)(8), (f) and (g) of Title 5 of the United States Code. (See DCIS Regulation 5400.11).

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

HOW SYSTEMS OF RECORDS ARE ARRANGED. The Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), a Component of the Department of Defense, is located in the Pentagon. In providing immediate staff assistance and advice to the Secretary of Defense, independently organized and identified offices function in full coordination and cooperation. Therefore, the Office of the Secretary of Defense systems of records are not maintained or arranged by subject but established in functional areas of a particular responsible staff office. The Office of the Secretary of Defense includes the offices of the Under Secretaries of Defense, the Assistant Secretaries of Defense, the Assistants to the Secretary of Defense, the General Counsel, DoD, and such other staff offices as the Secretary of Defense establishes to assist him in carrying out his duties and responsibilities.

HOW TO USE THE INDEX GUIDE. To assist the reader in locating and reviewing the particular record system of interest, the various staff offices and the prefix letter symbols represented as part of the record system identification for that office are set forth below

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

DAS 01

SYSTEM NAME:

Defense Audit Management Information System (DAS/MIS).

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Defense Audit Service, Audit Management Division (DAS-AM), Arlington, Virginia. The system utilizes the Computer Science Corporation's INFONET System, 1616 North Fort Myer Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22209.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

All active personnel employed by the Defense Audit Service with history data including previous employees maintained for two years.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Data on the individual's current position, current employment status, travel, audit experience training, and the following specific personal data: name, Social Security Account Number (SSAN), date of birth (DOB), service computation date (SCD), career status, experience, address, assigned station, job series, clearance, education, and evaluation due date.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 10, United States Code, section 136(b), and Department of Defense Directive 5105.48, 'Defense Audit Service', October 14, 1976, conveys the authority for maintenance of a system of records to the Director of the Defense Audit Service in support of the DAS mission.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

INTERNAL USERS, USES, AND PURPOSES

Information is used as follows:

(1) Security Clearance notification alert; provided to all audited activities in advance of visits by DAS audit personnel. Information provided in Alert is name, SSAN, Office of Assignment, and the security clearance for each auditor.

(2) Time and Attendance Reporting; provided to DAS Main Office by 9 CONUS Regional Offices and 3 Overseas Regional Offices. Time and Attendance Reports and used by various managers to track Temporary Duty Travel Frequency and duration, to accrue manhour data on assigned audit projects, to categorize indirect time for end of year reporting to provide time and attendance data to the centralized payroll system at the Main Office. Information included in Time and Attendance Reports are SSAN, Name, Grade, Assigned Office, Hours Present for Duty, Annual Leave Hours, Sick Leave Hours, Other Leave Hours and Type, TDY Location, and TDY Duration.

(3) Planned Annual Leave Reporting, utilized by various managers for workload planning and travel scheduling. Information included is Name, Assigned Office, and dates of planned annual leave.

(4) Audit Status and Auditor Assignment Reporting; used by managers to control audits and auditors, and to maximize effectiveness of manpower resources. Included information is Audit Number, Audit Requestor Code, Title, Milestone Dates, Audit Cost Summary, Personnel Assigned/Release Dates, and Personnel Manhours Expended.

(5) As Required Personnel Reporting; used by the Staff Manager to determine training needs, promotional eligibility, education and background, professional organization participation, and performance evaluation. Information included is Name, Assigned Offices, Education, Professional Activities Training History (Course Title, Dates Attended), Performance Evaluation, Date of Birth, and Service Computation Data.

(6) Travel Reporting; used by managers to control Temporary Duty Travel, travel costs, and issuances of Blanket Travel Orders.

EXTERNAL USERS, USES, AND PURPOSES

See Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) Blanket Routine Uses at the head of this Component's published system notices.

STORAGE:

Active records are stored on immediate access disk and magnetic tape maintained within the computer center. Inactive records are maintained on magnetic tape within the computer center. Hard copy records are stored in file cabinets under the control of functional users.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Records are internally stored by employee SSAN and are selectively retrievable by all data elements as specified in the Categories of Records in the System.

SAFEGUARDS:

All records reside in a 'private library' which is not accessible by any other user. All system files are backed up upon creation and upon any update action. A 'Master ID' with unrestricted access to all records in the private library is available only to Main Office

MIS Management Personnel. A 'Subordinate ID' which has restricted access, only to pertinent records, is used by field offices. Password protection is afforded at the session and file level. All user ID's are protected by separate validation. Any attempt to circumvent the password validation initiates immediate 'log-off.' Physical control includes limiting password to only authorized personnel. Master ID is located in a secure environment, within the Main Office, and access to the terminal facility is restricted to MIS Management employees who work within the area. Access to records containing personal data is restricted to those who require the records in the performance of their official duties and to the individual who is subject of the record (or his authorized representative). Tape files are maintained in an environmentally secure vault area when not in use. Computer Science Corporation has been cleared to process personal data for Government agencies by General Services Administration on December 11, 1975.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Machine resident records are maintained for 2 years after they become inactive. All inactive records are afforded the same safeguards as active records and are maintained on magnetic tape within the computer center. Machine resident records are destroyed at the end of the 2 year period. Hard copy records are retained until the records are replaced or become obsolete.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Director, Defense Audit Service, Suite 1200, Commonwealth Building, 1300 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Va. 22209. Telephone: 202-697-9108.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Written or personal request for information should be addressed to the System Manager.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

SYSTEM NAME:

Educator Application Files.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Manual and automated records are maintained at the Teacher Recruitment Section, Personnel Division, Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS), Hoffman Building I, 2461 Eisenhower Avenue, Alexandria, Virginia 22331 and manual records at the six DoDDS regional personnel offices. A terminal is located in the Hoffman Building complex. Automated records are maintained at the main computer site which is operated by the Service Bureau Company (SBC) located in Columbus, Ohio.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Prospective teachers applying for positions within the DoDDS system and current DoDDS teachers and educators applying for either interregional transfers or positions in the DoDDS Educator Career Program.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Prospective Teachers: Files contain all papers and forms relating to the individual's application for employment to include Personal Qualification Statement (SF 171), Supplemental Application of Employment with DoDDS (DS Form 5010), Professional Evaluation, DoDDS (DS Form 5011), DoDDS Application Index (DS Form 5012), interviewer's worksheets, official college transcripts, copy of teaching certificates, copy of birth certificate, and correspondence to or concerning the applicant.

Interregional Transfer Applicants: Files contain all papers and forms relating to the individual's application. A coded worksheet developed by the regional staff is provided to the central personnel office for processing (remainder of material retained at the region). Also included are miscellaneous worksheets and correspondence relating to the application.

Educator Career Program Applicants: Files contain all papers and forms relating to the individual's application to include: DoDDS Educator Career Program Application (DS Form 5080), DoDDS Assessment of Potential (DS Form 5081), DoDDS Educator Career Program Rating Sheet (DS Form 5082), and miscellaneous worksheets and correspondence relating to the application.

20 U.S.C. Sections 902, 903 and 931.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

INTERNAL USERS, USES, AND PURPOSES

Teacher Recruitment Section and Regional Offices: To determine qualifications and make selections of candidates for vacant positions within the DoDDS system (including new teachers, interregional transfers, and Educator Career Program positions), to review types of experience, educational background, evaluation of previous employers, professional credentials, interviewers' ratings.

Department of the Army, Air Force, and Navy Staff Agencies and Commands: To complete processing of hired individuals, to obtain Office of Personnel Management National Agency Check, medical examination, passports; to arrange transportation and shipment/storage of household goods; and to provide gaining Civilian Personnel Office necessary documentation for placing individual on rolls.

Any individual's records in a system of records might be transferred to any Component of the Department of Defense having a need to know in the performance of official business.

The SBC which operates the automated system.

Records may be disclosed to law enforcement or investigatory authorities for investigation and possible criminal prosecution, civil court action, or regulatory order.

STORAGE:

Paper records in file folders are stored at the DoDDS personnel office or regional offices; some files are supported by automated files which are maintained on disks and/or tapes at the central computer site.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The manual files are filed alphabetically by name. The automated records are indexed by name or system assigned number (assigned chronologically upon input). Also, any comination of data in the automated file can be used to select individual records. Only authorized individuals (i.e., personnel staffing specialists) are provided user identification numbers and passwords to access the system via terminal.

SAFEGUARDS:

Paper records are maintained in files which are accessible only to authorized personnel.

A. Description of automated process. Current hardcopy records of information and disks are maintained in the DoDDS personnel office where access can be controlled. The office is locked after normal duty hours and building is secured by a private security force. Hardcopy records of interregional transfer applicants and a portion of the Career Educator applicants are maintained in the regional offices in locked cabinets and/or locked offices where access can be controlled and which are locked after normal duty hours. Approved special requests for data can be supported by ad hoc inquiry. Any combination of data can be used to select individual records for special processing.

B. Physical safeguards. A high-speed remote batch terminal, used for this system, is located in the DoDDS personnel office. The office is secured after normal duty hours to preclude unauthorized access. Access to the personnel terminal and all hardcopy records are controlled by office personnel. Access to automated data files by terminal is controlled by the use of a user ID and passwork system. The central computer site is owned and operated by the SBC which has a complex security system. The site is guarded 24 hours a day, year-round, and employs a system of electronic locks, alarm systems, closed-circuit television, and intercom devices to preclude access by unauthorized personnel. All visitors are registered, escorted, and accounted for at all times. SBC has a back-up power supply so that the system will remain on-line during power shortages. Back-up tapes are run daily, weekly, and monthly and stored in fireproof vaults. A second copy of monthly tapes is stored in an off-site vault with 24-hour security.

C. Remote terminal access. Access to the terminal is controlled by the use of user identification numbers and passwords. The passwords are initially assigned by SBC; however, the user is immediately instructed to change it to something only known to him/her. Only through a complex internal checking system, can authorized SBC personnel access the password in the event it is lost or forgotten by the user. The password can be changed as frequently as desired and is now changed every 6 months or upon the departure of employee which has knowledge of it.

D. Storage Media. Hardcopy files are stored in the personnel office or in regional offices. Disks used in the personnel office are also stored there. Data retained by SBC is on disks and magnetic tape.

E. Risk analysis. The main computer site is adequately secure for storage of personal information. SBC is bound to uphold all provisions of the Privacy Act in accordance with GSA contract procedures. The terminal is protected so that unauthorized access to information can be prevented.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Prospective Teachers: Records are retained for recruitment period (no more than 1 year). For nonselected applicants, portions are returned to applicant for future use and portions are destroyed unless the applicant has indicated a desire to reapply in which case portions of the file are retained until the next recruitment period. Records of selected applicants are forwarded to the Departments of the Army, Air Force, and Navy as appropriate for processing.

Interregional Transfer Applicants: File is retained for 1 year and destroyed.

Career Educator Program Applicants: Applications are retained for 2 years (unless updated by applicant) and destroyed.

Automated Records: Back-up tapes at SBC are erased every 6 months via complete overwriting. Archive tapes after release by user are degaussed. When released by user, all tapes used for data which are on disk are automatically reset to 0 before anyone may use the storage space. Disks used on the terminal in the personnel office are erased when no longer needed and reused (i.e. never leave the office and are never used by another system).

SYSTEM NAME:

Department of Defense Dependents Schools (DoDDS) Grievance Records.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Office of Dependents Schools, 2461 Eisenhower Avenue, Room 120, Alexandria, Virginia 22331; six regional offices located in London, England; Wiesbaden, Germany; Karlsruhe, Germany; Madrid, Spain; Okinawa, Japan; and Panama; in principals' offices of DoDDS schools; and at the servicing civilian personnel offices at various military installations.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Current or former Federal employees who have submitted grievances in accordance with 5 USC 2302, and 5 USC 7121, or a negotiated procedure.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

This system contains records relating to grievances filed by DoD Dependents Schools (DoDDS) employees under 5 USC 2302, and 5 USC 7121. These case files contain all documents related to the grievances, including statements of witnesses, reports of interviews and hearings, examiner's findings and recommendtions, a copy of the original and final decision, and related correspondence and exhibits. This system includes files and records of internal grievance and arbitration systems that DoDDS may establish through negotiations with recognized labor organizations.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

5 USC 2302, and 5 USC 7121.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

INTERNAL USERS, USES, AND PURPOSES

This information is used by the DoDDS in the creation and maintenance of records of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related work force studies. While published statistics and studies do not contain individual identifiers, in some instances the selection of elements of data included in the study may be structured in such a way as to make the data individually identifiable by reference.

These records and information in these records are used:

a. To disclose pertinent information to the appropriate Federal, state, or local agency responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, or implementing a statute, rule, regulation, or order, where the disclosing agency becomes aware of an indication of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation.

b. To disclose information to any source from which additional information is requested in the course of processing a grievance, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the purpose(s) of the request, and identify the type of information requested.

c. To disclose information to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee; the issuance of a security clearance; the conducting of a security of suitability investigation of an individual; the classifying of jobs; the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to requesting the Agency's decision on the matter.

d. To provide information to a congressional office from the record of a individual, in response to an inquiry from that congressional office, made at the request of that individual.

e. To disclose information to another Federal agency or to a court when the Government is party to a judicial proceeding before the court.

f. By the National Archives and Records Services (General Services Administration) in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 USC 2906.

g. To disclose information to officials of the Merit Systems Protection Board, including the Office of the Special Counsel, the Federal Labor Relations Authority and its General Counsel; or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, when requested in performance of their authorized duties.

h. To disclose in response to a request for discovery or for appearance of a witness, information that is relevant to the subject matter involved in a pending judicial or adminsitrative proceeding.

i. To provide information to officials of labor organizations reorganized under the Civil Service Reform Act when relevant and necessary to their duties, exclusive representation concerning personnel policies, practices, and matters affecting work conditions.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

S. Credit transfer certificate files:

Documents reflecting college scholastic credits earned. Included are certificates and similar or related documents.

T. College students files:

Documents pertaining to individual college students. Included in each folder are absence reports, records of achievement, and aptitude tests.

U. Automated support files:

Automated data files are composed of records containing the following information (varies by regional system): student registration data-student identification number, student name, sex, grade level, bus number, date of enrollment, date of birth, course numbers and names, teacher, credit, grades received, dates of absences, and sponsor's name, status, rank, date of rotation, organization, location of unit, local address, emergency address and phone.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Recurring provisions of the DoD Appropriations Act and Department of Defense Directive 1342.6, 'Department of Defense Dependents' Schools,' dated October 17, 1978, with change 1.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

INTERNAL USERS, USES, AND PURPOSES

A. Dependent children's school program files (general):

1. Records of students attending DoD operated overseas dependent schools are used by school officials, including teachers, to: (a) Determine the eligibility of children to attend these schools; (b) Schedule children for transportation; (c) Record daily and/or class attendance of students and date(s) of withdrawal; (d) Determine tuition paying students and record status of payments; (e) Determine students located in areas not serviced by dependents schools so that alternative arrangements for education can be made and payment made, as required; (f) Monitor special education services required by and received by the student; and (g) Used to develop and maintain reading and health records, including school related medical needs.

2. Records may also be released to other officials of the Department of Defense requiring information for operation of the Department (including defense investigative agencies) on a case-by-case basis in accordance with established policies and procedures.

B. Dependent children's school program files (elementary):

1. Used by school officials, including teachers, in the current and/or gaining school to develop and provide an educational program for elementary students by school personnel cited above.

2. Used in the following manner to record: (a) Teacher or standardized test data; (b) Attendance, absences, and/or tardiness of each student; (c) Recommendations for promotion or retention including teacher comments; (d) Daily, weekly, semester, or annual grades; and, (e) Notes related to the individual pupil's progress and learning characteristics useful to professional school personnel in counseling the student and in the determination of his/her proper placement.

C. Dependent children's school program files (secondary):

1. Used by school officials, including teachers, in the current and/or gaining school to develop and provide an education program for secondary students.

2. Documents are used by school personnel cited above in the following manner to: (a) Record teacher and/or standardized test data; (b) Record attendance, absences, and/or tardiness of each student; (c) Form the basis for a decision on a student request for permission to be absent from a class or classes; (d) Determine proper class or grade placement or graduation; (e) Determine scholastic grades and/or grade point average; (f) Form the basis for school recommendations for student financial aid for postsecondary education; (g) Form the basis for preparing the secondary school transcript; (h) Determine secondary school academic credits earned; and (i) Note special interest or hobbies of the student.

3. Used by DoD recruiting officials to determine eligibility for military service.

D. Dependent children's school program files (college):

1. Used by school officials, including teachers, in the current and/or gaining school to develop and provide an educational program for college students.

2. Documents are used by school personnel cited above in the following manner to: (a) Record teacher and/or standardized test data; (b) Record attendance and absences of each student; (c) Form the basis for a decision on a student request for permission to be absent from a class or classes; (d) Determine proper class or grade placement or graduation; (e) Determine scholastic grades and/or grade point average; (f) Form the basis for school recommendations for student financial aid for college education; (g) Form the basis for preparing the college transcript; and (h) Determine college academic credits earned.

3. Used by DoD recruiting officials to determine eligibility for military service.

E. Automated support. Automated support is used by school and regional officials (where applicable to:

1. Provide academic data to each student upon request, provide report cards, etc., at the end of each grading period, provide transcripts upon request, provide hard copy for manual files.

2. Provide academic data within the region and to ODS.

3. Used by DoD recruiting officials to determine eligibility for military service.

E. Automated support. Automated support is used by school and regional officials (where applicable) to:

1. Provide academic data to each student upon request, provide report cards, etc., at the end of each grading period, provide transcripts upon request, and provide hard copy for manual files.

2. Provide academic data within the region and to ODS.

3. Provide data within the Department of Defense on a need-to-know basis.

4. Provide data to other government agencies and Congress when a specific authorized need requires it.

Documents of students attending the DoD overseas dependents schools may be used by authorized Federal representatives for employment purposes.

Academic data may be provided to other educational institutions and employers or prospective employers in accordance with current policies and procedures.

Student records and test results may be used by agencies contracted by DoDDS to evaluate various aspects of the system and student population. Contractors will be informed of their obligations under the Privacy Act in accordance with current policies and procedures.

STORAGE:

Files are paper records in file folders.

RETRIEVABILITY:

A. Elementary school academic records and secondary school and college academic records (transcripts) are filed alphabetically by school, school year, and last name of student.

B. Elementary, secondary, and college teacher class register files are filed by school, school year, and last name of teacher.

C. Remaining dependent school student files are filed by school, school year, and last name of student.

D. The automated files are indexed by a variety of data, depending upon the region and school involved (some have regionally assigned student identification numbers, others are by last name of student). Also, any combination of data in the file can be used to select individual records. Only authorized personnel have required information to access the systems or process jobs.

SAFEGUARDS:

Paper records are maintained in files accessible only to authorized personnel.

Automated records:

A. Description of the automated process. Current hard copy records of all information are kept in locked file cabinets in limited access school offices. Computer-produced student records and reports become an integral part of the manual system and are retained in limited access school offices and/or locked cabinets. Computer disks, tapes, etc., are maintained in limited access areas within the various computer centers, regional offices, and/or schools. Approved special requests for data can be supported by ad hoc inquiry. Any combination of data can be used to select individual records for special processing.

B. Physical safeguards. Computer facilities and remote terminals are located in schools and regional offices throughout the school system. Particular regional systems vary; however, the same basic safeguards are employed (in various combinations) in all the systems. Computer hardware disk cards and other materials are secured in locked facilities after normal duty hours or are maintained in secure military computer centers. During school hours, storage media is stored in areas where access can be monitored. On-line access is protected by combinations of the following various factors: (1) users must have file and/or disk names; (2) users must have possession or approval to gain possession of appropriate disk(s); and, (3) users must have specifically designed codes and/or keys to permit read/write operations.

C. Storage media. Hard copy files are stored in the school offices of each participating school and regional offices. Computer files are stored on magnetic tape and disks, as outlined above.

D. Risk Analysis. All personal information which is collected and/or maintained for this system is stored in locations adequately secure for such information. Administrative safeguards have been instituted to prevent access to information in the automated systems.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

A. Enrollment files:

Maintained at the respective school for 1 year after graduation, withdrawal, transfer, or death of the student, then destroyed.

B. Daily attendance register files:

Destroyed after reviewing attendance registers for the next school year.

C. Elementary school academic records files:

When a student transfers to another school, this file is forwarded by mail to officials of the receiving school on request in accordance with current regulations, or destroyed at the school 5 years after graduation, death, or withdrawal of the student.

Released to parents or student at the end of the school year or on transfer of the student.

E. Elementary school teacher class register files:

Destroyed at the school concerned after 5 years.

F. Elementary school teacher class register files:

Destroyed at the school concerned after 5 years.

F. Elementary school student files: (1) When a student transfers to another school, the reading and health records are released to the parents or student (if over 18 years of age) for hand-carrying to the receiving school; and (2) Remaining documents pertaining to the students are forwarded by mail to the officials of the receiving school o r the parent/guardian on request in accordance with current regulations; if not requested, documents are destroyed at the school concerned 1 year after graduation, death, or withdrawal of the student.

G. Secondary school absentee files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

H. Secondary school academic record files (high school transcripts): (1) Permanent file (2) When a student transfers to another DoD dependents school, this file (transcript) is forwarded by mail to officials of the receiving school on request; (3) When a student transfers to a non-DoD school, a copy of the transcript is forwarded to the receiving school on request in accordance with current regulations; (4) Files not forwarded to another DoD school are retained at the school concerned for 4 years, the regional office for 1 year and then retired to the WNRC (or East Point FARC if in the Panama region) for an additional 60 years.

I. Secondary school report card files:

Released to parents of student or student (if over 18 years of age) at the end of the school year or on transfer of student.

J. Secondary school teacher class register files:

Retained at the school concerned for 5 years and then destroyed.

K. Secondary school class reporting files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

L. Credit transfer certificate files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

M. Secondary school student files: (1) Retained at the school concerned for 2 years after graduation, death, or withdrawal of the student; (2) When a student transfers to another school: (a) A copy of the record may be released to the parents or student (if over 18 years of age) for hand-carrying to the receiving school; (b) An official copy of the record will be forwarded to the receiving school in accordance with current regulations upon request. (The original record is retained at the school.)

N. College absentee files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

O. College academic record files (college transcripts): (1) Permanent file; (2) When a student transfers to another college or university, this file (transcript) is forwarded by mail to officials of the receiving school upon receipt of an authorized request; and (3) Original files (transcripts) are retained at the college for 10 years then retired to East Point FARC.

P. College report card files:

Released to student at the end of the semester or school year, or on transfer of student.

Q. College teacher class register files:

Retained at the school for 5 years and then destroyed.

R. College class reporting files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

S. Credit transfer certificate files:

Destroyed at the school after 1 year.

T. College school student files: (1) Retained at the school for 2 years; (2) When a student transfers to another school: (a) A copy of the record may be released to the parents or student (if 18 years of age) for hand-carrying to the receiving school; and (b) An official copy of the record will be forwarded to the receiving school upon request pending receipt of authorized request. (The original record is retained at the school).

U. Automated files:

Automated files are normally retained for 1 year. However, this may vary as all information is documented in the manual files and the information in automated form may be destroyed earlier or later than 1 year for various internal purposes.

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

The users of this file are those staff, line, contract and field officers, employees and assignees as authorized and appropriate. In addition, portions of these files are incorporated in the Personnel File, are made available to management and supervisory personnel and to other governmental entities as required and appropriate. The file is used to carry out the purposes cited above, perform certain statistical analyses related to training and reports concerning training, and may be used to assist in the evaluation of an individual's performance, readiness for promotion, potential for career development, assignments requiring special qualifications, and other actions as appropriate.

STORAGE:

Paper records in file folders, card files, binders, computer punch cards, computer listings, computer magnetic tapes, disks and other computer storage media, microfilm.

RETRIEVABILITY:

By name or social security number.

SAFEGUARDS:

For paper, computer printouts and microfilm - Secure limited access facilities, within those facilities secure limited access rooms and within those rooms lockable containers as appropriate. Access to information is limited to authorized individuals only. For machine records stored on magnetic tape, disk or other computer storage media within the computer processing area-additional secure limited access facilities, specific processing requests accepted from authorized persons only, specific authority to access stored records and delivery granted to authorized persons only. Where data elements are derived from the Personnel System, remote terminal inhibitions are in force with respect to access to complete file or data relating to persons not assigned to requesting organization using a remote terminal. Remote terminals are secured, available to authorized persons only, and certain password and other identifying information available to authorized users only is required. Terminals are not available outside of headquarters area locations.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Primary System - Records are reviewed annually and retained or destroyed as appropriate. Copies of items of significance with respect to the individual are included in the Personnel File and retention is in accordance with the retention policies for that system. Items used as the basis of statistical studies or other research efforts may be retained indefinitely. Computer listings and records are purged and updated as required and appropriate. Decentralized System - Records are reviewed annually and retained or destroyed as appropriate. Individual's file may be transferred to gaining organization if appropriate. Computer listings and records are purged and updated as required and appropriate.

DEFENSE NUCLEAR AGENCY

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated - otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

Records are maintained in Lektriever with combination lock and are accessible only to authorized personnel who are properly screened, cleared and trained and whose duties require them to be in the area where records are maintained.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Temporary Records - Must be retained in the Official Personnel Folder (left side) for a minimum period of one year or until the employee transfers or separates, whichever occurs first, except that official letters of admonishment, warning, caution, reprimand, and similar disciplinary action papers may be removed at any time if it is decided later that the action was unwarranted. Otherwise, most temporary records may remain in an employee's personnel folder as long as he remains with the same agency, except that letters of caution, warning, admonishment, reprimand, and similar disciplinary action papers must not be kept in the folder longer than three years, unless the agency has received an exception from the Civil Service Commission.

Permanent Records - Personnel action reports and other documents filed on the right side of the folder are permanent records and 'travel' with the employee throughout his or her entire Federal career. Records are maintained in DCA until the individuals terminate their employment with DCA and subsequently are transferred to another government agency or if the employee is separated from the Federal service the records are transferred to the National Personnel Records Center (Civilian), St. Louis, Missouri.

ADDENDUM TO DCA STATION LIST DIRECTORY

The Director, DCA is also the Manager, National Communications System (NCS), the Chairman, U.S. Military Communications Electronics Board (USMCEB), and the Director, Worldwide Military Command and Communications System (WWMCCS) Systems Engineering. To the extent that the Director, DCA performs these other functions, the records systems described herein pertain to and are available to employees of these organizations, and may be corrected by means of the same process described for DCA files systems, unless specified otherwise herein.

With the exception of personnel records for Navy officers assigned to DCA activities in the Washington metropolitan area, the official military personnel records of military personnel assigned to DCA are maintained by the parent department and that department has the only complete official copies of the military members personnel records file. Responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of these files is invested in the military department. While the DCA commander or office chief may assist the military members in obtaining access or making corrections, DCA does not have the authority either to grant access or make corrections. The documents maintained by DCA on military personnel are copies of records provided by the military departments during the nomination process, copies of personnel correspondence generated during the members tenure in DCA, promotion rosters furnished by the military departments, and copies of orders published by the departments. A few documents are maintained as a result of requirements imposed by the departments (leave forms for Army and Air Force personnel and SIDPERS for Army personnel).

In the case of Navy officers in the Washington area, DCA maintains the Navy Officers service records and can grant access and make corrections within the purview of NAVPERS 15791, Bureau of Naval Personnel Manual.

DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

REQUESTING RECORDS

Records are retrieved by name or by some other personal identifier. It is therefore especially important for expeditious service when requesting a record that particular attention be provided to the Notification and/or Access Procedures of the particular record system involved so as to furnish the required personal identifiers, or any other pertinent personal information as may be required, to locate and retrieve the record.

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

SYSTEM NAME:

Personnel Management Information System (PMIS)

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Defense Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.D. 20301

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Current and former military and civilian employees of DIA. Military and civilian personnel and their dependents nominated for assignment to the Defense Attache System.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

This system consists of a variety of personnel and directory data, security, education, training, financial health information, location, telephone and employment related records.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Pursuant to the authority contained in the National Security Act of 1947, 10 U.S.C. 133d, the Secretary of Defense issued Department of Defense Directive 5105.21 creating the Defense Intelligence Agency as a separate agency of the Department of Defense under his direction and herein charged the Agency's Director with the responsibility for the maintenance of necessary and appropriate records.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Records are used by staff, administrative and operating officials to prepare individual administrative transactions; make decisions on the rights, benefits, entitlements and the utilization of individuals; provide a data source for the production of reports, statistical surveys, rosters, documentation and studies required for the orderly personnel administration within DIA. Information will be disclosed to such other Federal agencies, state and local governments, as may have a legitimate use for such information and which agree to apply appropriate safeguards to protect data so provided and which is consistent with the conditions or reasonable expectations of use and disclosure under which the information was provided, collected or obtained. Information collected concerning home phone, address and emergency notification data is used to provide postal and locator service, to identify next-of-kin for emergency notification and as a source document to prepare recall and special rosters required for the Agency's day-to-day operation and emergency functions. At overseas locations information may be provided to host country, Department of State, Department of Justice, Department of Treasury and the Central Intelligence Agency.

STORAGE:

Automated, maintained on magnetic tape and manual in paper files and cards and microfilms.

RETRIEVABILITY:

By name or social security account number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are maintained in a building protected by security guards and are stored in vaults, safes or locked cabinets and are accessible only to authorized personnel who are properly screened, cleared and trained in the protection of privacy information.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Paper files are destroyed when employment with the Agency ceases. Temporary microfilm records are destroyed when replaced within an updated film and magnetic tape files are retained indefinitely as permanent record. Directory Service files are destroyed one year after the individual departs the agency. Defense Attache System records are maintained for one year beyond the individual's tour completion date and then destroyed.

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

HOW SYSTEMS OF RECORDS ARE ARRANGED. In the Marine Corps, records are categorized by subject series. Each series has assigned a subject title, a three-letter prefix and followed by a five-digit number. For Example, the systems of records containing pay data may be found in the Fiscal/Disbursing series (MFDOOOOX). The letter M stands for Marine Corps; the next two letters indicate that the records are pay related; and the following five digit number is a further breakdown of the series for identification purposes.

HOW TO USE THE INDEX GUIDE. The system of records maintained by the Marine Corps are contained within the subject series that are listed below. This list identified each series in the order they appear in this compilation. Use the list to identify subject areas of interest. Having done so, use the appropriate system identification series to locate the systems of records grouping in which you are interested.

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.

STORAGE:

Data is recorded on magnetic records and discs, punch cards, computer printouts, microform, file folders, and other documents.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The data contained in magnetic records can be displayed on cathode-ray tubes, it can be computer printed on paper, and it can be converted to microform for information retrieval; the data in the supporting file folders and other manual records is retrieved manually. Computerized and conventional indices are required to retrieve individual records from the system. Normally, all types of records are retrieved by Social Security Number and name.

SAFEGUARDS:

Building management employs security guards; building is locked nights and holidays. Authorized personnel may enter and leave the building during nonworking hours but must sign in and out. Records are maintained in areas accessible only to authorized personnel that are properly screened, cleared and trained.

Access to personal information is limited to authorized personnel with a need-to-know. Access is restricted to specific applications programs, records, and files to which personnel have a specific and recorded need-to-know. Online data sets (both tape and disc) pertaining to personal information are password protected, areas are controlled and access lists are used. The files are also protected at a level appropriate to the type of information being processed.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Magnetic records are maintained on all military personnel and certain civilians while they are in service or employed by the service and for a period of 11 months after separation. Paper and film records are maintained for a period of 10 years after the final transaction, then they are destroyed. End calendar and fiscal year 'snapshots' of the MMS data base are maintained indefinitely in magnetic form at Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Marine Corps Central Design and Programming Activity (MCCDPA), 1500 East 95th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64131; Marine Corps Finance Center, Kansas City, Missouri 64197.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

The allotment system contains all active allotments and limited (12 months) stop history for each active duty, retired, and Fleet Marine Corps Reserve (FMCR) member who authorized an allotment from his pay and allowances.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

The allotment file contains allotments authorized by the Marines concerned, as provided under instructions issued by the Secretary of Defense.

The B&A automated system is made up of records which contain the following fields (data elements and data sets): Identification Number (Social Security Number (SSN)); Initials of Name (Last, First, Middle); Rank/Category; Last Name and Suffix; Last Pay Date; First Pay Date; Work Date; Amount; Term (in months); Account/Policy Number; Authority/Date/Remark; Bond Owner Name; Bond Owner SSN: Co-owner Beneficiary Flag; Co-owner or Beneficiary Name; Co-owner or Beneficiary SSN; Authority/Date/Remark; Name of Recipient; Street Address/Post Office Box; City and State/Country; Geographic Code (City, State/Country); Zip Code.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 37, U S Code. The authority for continuing deduction for garnishment of pay is outlined in section 459 of Public Law 93-647.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

The purpose of the system is to provide for the payment of allotments and for the issuance, cancellation, of U S Treasury checks and savings bonds as authorized by appropriate directives. The data obtained from the system provides for the control and ultimate disposition of all treasury checks and savings bonds prepared. Allows for the collection of appropriate data, to render an accurate accounting of public funds expended or collected as required by the Navy Comptroller Manual. The allotment file is utilized by the Joint Uniform Military Pay System/Manpower Management System (JUMPS/MMS) and Retired Pay systems to calculate the monies due active duty, retired, and FMCR members of the U S Marine Corps.

The allotment class, dollar value, and allotee are displayed on the JUMPS Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) as issued. Copies of the LES are distributed as follows:

Original (white) - Disbursing Officer (DO) having custody of the Personal Financial Record.

Duplicate (yellow) - furnished the Marine concerned.

Triplicate (pink) - furnished the Commanding Officer (CO) for retention on the Marine's service record.

For permanent record retention purposes, one copy will be filed at the MCFC in microform.

The total dollar value of active allotments is furnished each retired and FMCR Marine each time a new statement of his account card is prepared.

Verification and/or information concerning a specific allotment may be released (as requested) to the following:

Marine concerned.

Marine's CO

Marine's DO

Recipient of the allotment.

Treasury Department.
Federal Reserve Bank.
Federal Bureau of Investigation.
Naval Audit Service.
General Accounting Office.
Postal Inspectors.

SYSTEM NAME:

Automated Systematic Recruiting Support System (ASRSS)

SYSTEM LOCATION:

The system will be operated at each Recruiting Station, District Headquarters, and Marine Corps Recruit Depot within the Marine Corps. See organizational elements of the U. S. Marine Corps as listed in the Directory of the Department of the Navy Activities.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

All Marine Corps Regular and Reserve recruits.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

File contains information voluntarily provided by recruits as contained on the Application for Enlistment - Armed Forces of the United States.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 10, U. S. Code 301, Departmental Regulations

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

Marine Corps Recruiting Stations - Ensure that a member of the Delayed Entry Pool is shipped to Marine Corps Recruit Depot on the appropriate date. Ensure that recruits are not retained in the Delayed Entry Pool longer than the authorized period. Give proper credit, e.g., Meritorious Appointment to Private First Class, to recruits who have referred other enlistees to the Marine Corps. Keep track of recruits who successfully complete recruit training for subsequent assistance as recruiter aides while on recruit leave.

Marine Corps District Headquarters - Monitor the status of accessions by category, e.g., Mental Group; losses from the Delayed Entry Program recruiter performance by 'waiver code.'

Marine Corps Recruit Depot - Ensure that those recruits shipped from various recruiting stations and Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Stations (AFEES) arrive at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot on schedule. Trace recruiter malpractice allegations to the proper source.

Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps - Monitor accessions by program option/guarantee. Match total accessions throughout the country to demographic data available through the Recruit Market Network. Track Reserve accessions by Reserve unit, Military Occupational Specialty (MOS), and availability for active service training. Respond to Congressional inquiries on individual cases in a timely, accurate manner.

STORAGE:

The file will be stored via on-line magnetic disk with backup on magnetic tape. Backup audit trail record will be available at the point-of-entry.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Standard reports and ad hoc retrievals are generated from remote terminals using a data base management system. Additionally, updates and record browsing may be accomplished in the interactive mode through keying Social Security Number.

SAFEGUARDS:

Records are maintained in areas accessible only to authorized personnel that are properly screened, cleared, and trained.

'Hard copy' or paper output from the system is stored in locked containers.

System software contains user passwords to lock out unauthorized access.

Software contains partitions to limit access to appropriate organizational level.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

On-line magnetic records will be maintained for one year after completion of recruit training. Records are then retired to a 'history file' where they will be retained for a period of four (4) years and then destroyed.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Commandant of the Marine Corps (Attn: Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower), Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, Washington, D. C. 20380.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Requests from individuals for information concerning their ASRSS records should be addressed to the Commandant of the Marine Corps (Code MPI-40), U. S. Marine Corps, Washington, D. C. 20380. Requesting individual should supply full name and Social Security Number.

The requester may also visit any Marine Corps Recruiting Station to determine whether ASRSS contains records pertaining to him or her. In order to personally visit a Recruiting Station and obtain information, individuals must present proper identification such as military identification, if a service member, driver's license, or some other suitable proof of identity.

REQUESTING RECORDS

BLANKET ROUTINE USES

Certain blanket 'routine uses' of the records have been established, that are applicable to every record system maintained within the Department of Defense, unless specifically stated otherwise within a particular record system. These additional blanket routine uses of the records are published below, only once in the interest of simplicity, economy and to avoid redundancy, before the individual record system notices begin rather than repeating them in every individual record system.

ROUTINE USE - LAW ENFORCEMENT

In the event that a system of records maintained by this component to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE WHEN REQUESTING INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to a federal, state or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to a component decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF REQUESTED INFORMATION

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed to a federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

ROUTINE USE - CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRIES

Disclosure from a system of records maintained by this component may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to other components of the Department of Defense if necessary and relevant for the performance of a lawful function such as, but not limited to, personnel actions, personnel security actions and criminal investigations of the Component requesting the record.

ROUTINE USE - PRIVATE RELIEF LEGISLATION

Relevant information contained in all systems of records of the Department of Defense published on or before August 22, 1975, will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that Circular.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS

A record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to foreign law enforcement, security, investigatory, or administrative authorities in order to comply with requirements imposed by, or to claim rights conferred in international agreements and arrangements including those regulating the stationing and status in foreign countries of Department of Defense military and civilian personnel.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO STATE AND LOCAL TAXING AUTHORITIES

Any information normally contained in IRS Form W-2 which is maintained in a record from a system of records maintained by this Component may be disclosed to State and local taxing authorities with which the Secretary of the Treasury has entered into agreements pursuant to Title 5, U.S.Code, Sections 5516, 5517, 5520, and only to those State and local taxing authorities for which an employee or military member is or was subject to tax regardless of whether tax is or was withheld. This routine use is in accordance with Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin Nr. 76-07.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO THE OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

A record from a system of records subject to the Privacy Act and maintained by this component may be disclosed to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave, benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information necessary for the Office of Personnel Management to carry out its legally authorized Government-wide personnel management functions and studies.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO NARS (GSA)

A record from a system of records maintained by this component may be disclosed as a routine use to the National Archives and Records Service of the General Services Administration in records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

ROUTINE USE - DISCLOSURE TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

All systems of records relating to compensation, employment or retirement, or extracts therefrom, maintained by this Component may be disclosed as a routine use to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the purpose of comparing such record with records of programs administered by and in the possession of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in order to verify information where such verification is required by law or regulation or to identify violations or potential violations of law, whether criminal, civil, or regulatory, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto.
